Helvetica Property Investors appoints an additional executive board member

Zurich, April 26 – Helvetica Property Investors AG “Helvetica Property” announces the appointment of Frederic Königsegg (47) as CIO, Head Investments and member of the Executive Management team in charge of Acquisition and Sales, effective 1 June. As a Director, he will directly report to Hans R. Holdener, CEO and Managing Partner.

In appointing Frederic Königsegg, Helvetica Property has boosted the strength of the company’s know-how and network of contacts and emphasized its determination to become a leading investment company in the real estate sector. Frederic Königsegg brings his exceptional level of real estate industry expertise to the team and will further improve and expand the firm’s acquisitions capacity thanks to his extensive network and experience.

Prior to joining Helvetica Property, Frederic was Managing Director at Jargonant Partners responsible for European Real Estate investments and Director at Valartis Asset Management where he had overall responsibility for two Luxembourg based investment vehicles.

Commenting on his new role, Frederic said: "Helvetica Property has successfully established itself as a relevant player in the Swiss real estate market over the past years. I feel honoured to apply my knowledge and experience for the benefit of this future-oriented company and to contribute – through my commitment – to the ongoing healthy and successful development of Helvetica Property."

Hans R. Holdener, CEO and Managing Partner at Helvetica Property, said: "We are very happy to welcome on board someone who possesses as rich and as in-depth experience of the real estate industry as Frederic does. Thanks to his wide industry network, he is the ideal candidate to further enhance our team and shape the future of our firm."

Frederic Königsegg holds a master’s degree in business & economics from the University of St. Gallen (HSG).
